

IS A FRIEND OF TEACHERS

Hon. J. N. Harman Says They Are Very Poorly Paid.

A BILL TO BENEFIT THEM

The Tazewell Legislator Does Not Think Any Should Receive Less
Than Forty Dollars a Month.
Wants the Very Best.

Hon. J. N. Harman, of Tazewell, school teacher, preacher, lawyer and legislator, and still far from being an old man, is a staunch friend of the teachers, and has just testified his interest in his early vocation by introducing a bill designed to secure better remuneration for the teachers.

"I'm a sort of Jack at all trades, and, as the old adage goes, good at none. I'm afraid," said the Senator in conversation with a reporter of The Times-Dispatch. "If I may be said to be successful in anything, however, it is in the instruction of children. I love children, and I find them very interesting, and if the remuneration justified me in doing so I would rather teach them than anything else. I have a peculiar facility for instructing and developing the minds of children between six or seven and fourteen or fifteen years old.

VERY POORLY PAID.
"I taught school—yes, a public school—for seven years, and I would now be teaching if I had the opportunity. I am not in the poorest paid of all the professions, considering the preparation required, and the fact that the salary continues but a few months in the year." Mr. Harman abandoned teaching and read law. "I practice law for a living and preach free on Sundays and board myself," said he, when asked as to his present occupation. "From my own experience, as a teacher, I feel a peculiar interest in the profession, and I desire to see the standard of teachers raised, especially in the section of the State I represent. There is no future for the teacher in that vocation, and after demonstrating ability better salary for the teachers as a solution of the problem, and is an earnest advocate of this reform.

The measure he has just offered will hardly pass in its present form, nor does he expect that of the club he invited guests all spent a most delightful evening. There were many indications of the Easter season in evidence. Prizes were not awarded. Some of those present were: Misses Gretchen and Katharine M. Lewis, and Elizabeth Smith, of Albemarle; H. Cross, Orena, and Caroline Carlton, of Manchester, Va.; Frank D. Beckham, William C. Wingfield, of Richmond; Jacob Van Doren, of Albemarle county; and Merton Lewis, of Highland Park. Miss Carrie G. Todd, of "Walnut Hill," Henrico county, has been visiting Miss Mabel Herndon Beard, on Fourth Avenue and Willow Street.

Miss Rosebell Holladay Shaffer is visiting Mrs. Charles T. Alexander, at Galloway, Arkansas.

Miss Louise Gordon Rennie has just returned from a delightful visit to Petersburg. Miss Rennie is very popular in our social circle, and her many friends are delighted to welcome her home.

Miss Josephine Woodall is visiting her grandmother, Mrs. Satterwhite, at her home, on Fourth Avenue and Chestnut Street.

The Easter entertainment at the Highland Park Methodist Episcopal Church was a pronounced success. The rain was pouring in torrents, but notwithstanding the unfavorable state of the weather, when 4 o'clock arrived, the young folks had assembled in large numbers to participate in the fascinating amusements provided for them. One of the most interesting events was the hunt for the "Easter egg," and a friendly spirit of emulation was developed. The lucky one was Master Keeling Sisson, who, in the much coveted prize, home in triumph.

Miss Clara B. Wilkins, who spent Easter in Washington, D. C., returned to Chestnut Hill yesterday. She is the guest of Miss Mabel H. Beard.

Mr. V. B. Carlton, of Third Avenue and Willow Street, left on Monday morning for New York on a business trip. It will be gone several days.

Mrs. James M. Holladay, who spent the winter with relatives in Richmond and on Chestnut Hill, has returned to her home in Spotsylvania county.

HIGHLAND SPRINGS.
Easter Sunday was so perfect a day that the churches were well attended, both morning and afternoon. The sanctuaries were beautifully decorated, and the music, being of high order, was inspiring and well rendered.

At the Methodist Episcopal Church the services were both impressive and beautiful.

The singing by the quartette choir was particularly good. Mrs. G. T. Collins and J. W. Dudley rendering solos in their usual delightful manner.

The afternoon service at the Marshall Memorial (First Unitarian) Church was particularly interesting. The pastor, Rev. A. N. Bomers, delivered a most interesting sermon. The Thirteen thousand positions were filled by the Remington Employment Departments during the year 1902 in the cities of New York and Chicago alone. Every city in America shows a similar proportion.

Good Pay
Remember that the user of a low-priced writing machine always wants a low-priced stenographer. The best positions are secured by the competent operators of the

Remington
Remington Typewriter Company.
706 East Main Street,
Richmond.

choir sang appropriate anthems and carols in a pleasing manner.

The Ladies' Aid Society of the M. E. Church met at the home of Mrs. Collins yesterday afternoon with a large attendance.

The Woman's Study Club will meet this afternoon at 2:30 o'clock in Library Hall. All members are requested to be present.

The "Bessie's Lamb Social Club" surprised their friends at Lynnhurst Easter Monday. Wishing to carry out the day in true picnic style and finding it necessary to seek shelter, they arrived at about 2:30, and were received with open arms.

The afternoon was spent in music, song and palm-reading, much to the delight of the "Lamb's," who, after doing justice to a well-spread table set in their honor, took possession of the 7 o'clock ingling trolley, when the day's pleasures were concluded at the Bijou.

EAST RICHMOND.

Bessie's Lamb Social Club took its Easter outing to Falling Creek despite the rain. Many were the vicissitudes before the flock was safely housed again.

The grounds of the Masonic Home have been very much beautified by the donation to the Home of 140 small fruit and shade trees, the benches, gift of the Masonic Lodge of Falls Church, Va., and J. W. Thorne's nursery, of the same place, which will not only beautify this most lovely situation, but will make it a very valuable tract and a lasting memorial to those in whose charge the institution has flourished.

The Home, at least its efficient superintendent, has concluded that a poultry yard would be a profitable addition, so two acres have been fenced off for that purpose, and already several hundred little chicks are happy to make it their home.

Grading and graveling is still going on, and a general improvement is taking place.

Many beautiful shrubs and flowers will make lovely what was one year ago a barren waste.

A treat is in store for all who may attend the Confederate Bazaar on the 27th, when the fair will be Georgia Day. This day has been dedicated to the Masons and will be known as Masonic Day, when Acca Temple of the Myrtle Shrine and other Masonic orders will be entertained at the bazaar, at the Masonic Home. This will be the gala day of the bazaar, and one that will be looked forward to with happy anticipation.

Fairmount News

Edith, the little daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Smith, of No. 114 Twenty-second Street, is very sick with bronchitis.

Mrs. W. H. Burkert and children, of No. 1317 Twenty-second Street, who have been visiting relatives and friends in Baltimore, returned home Sunday.

Mr. and Mrs. Eugene McDowell, of No. 140 Twenty-second Street, are expected home to-day from Oakland, Louisiana county.

The funeral of little George W. Troxler, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. G. W. Troxler, who died Monday morning, took place yesterday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock from No. 1200 Twenty-first Street, conducted by Rev. C. C. Cox.

Mr. Percy Patterson's little boy, Ray, is quite sick with measles at No. 1404 Twenty-second Street.

Rev. O. Babcock, who has been visiting revival services at Fairmount Methodist Church for the past three weeks, will leave for his home on Sunday.

FOR MEALS.
What to Eat Stated by a Food Expert.

Not all people know that by the use of food alone, and by scientifically made and properly selected to produce certain results, the sick can be made well and the well can be made better.

The subject is worth anyone's attention, for health is the sure road to happiness, and it is happiness we are all seeking, so pay attention to the kind of food you eat and get results.

Many people stagger along if sick, but never think to change their food. A safe, sure way is to adopt the following diet, which is both wholesome, palatable, highly nutritious, and will produce remarkable results in curing every old, chronic case of stomach and bowel trouble, frequently kidney complaint, weak eyes (which generally come from stomach trouble), and about nine cases in ten of so-called heart disease.

Good comfortable sleep will follow the use of this diet. Breakfast: Some cooked fruit, just a trifle of sugar, a dish of Grape-Nuts put into the saucepan dry just as it comes from the package. (Don't try to cook this food.) Four a little thick, rich cream over it. Boiled eggs, no meat or grease; one cup of Postum. Food Coffee with good, rich cream and sugar to taste.

If one does hard, bodily work, the heavy meal should be at the middle of the day and this to consist of soup, meat, one or two vegetables and some bread, and butter, preferably entire wheat, which is toothsome, palatable, highly nutritious, and will produce remarkable results in curing every old, chronic case of stomach and bowel trouble, frequently kidney complaint, weak eyes (which generally come from stomach trouble), and about nine cases in ten of so-called heart disease.

Common sense and the use of scientifically selected food will indicate what will change most quickly, from a condition of discomfort to a state of health and consequently Peace, Activity and Long Life.

The subject is worth anyone's attention.

will bring the revival to an end to-night. The infant son of only child of Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Smith, of No. 1215 Twenty-second Street, is critically ill with pneumonia and bronchitis.

Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Pollard, of Hanover county, spent Sunday with Mr. and Mrs. M. Pollard, on the Avenue, parents of the former.

Mrs. John Will, who recently moved from Fairmount to Petersburg, is visiting her friend, Mrs. Joseph Smith, at No. 1321 Twenty-second Street.

The youngest child of Mr. and Mrs. John Wright, of No. 1308 Twenty-third Street, is slightly better.

Rev. C. C. Cox's youngest son, Luther, is still quite ill with whooping cough at his father's home, No. 1215 Twenty-third Street.

Mr. Willie Oxenham's children are sick with measles at No. 1603 Twenty-third Street.

Mrs. Edward Perdue, of No. 1514 Twenty-third Street, who has been quite sick for several days, is reported better.

Helen, the youngest daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Beadles, is quite sick with measles at their home, No. 1219 Twenty-second Street.

An Easter egg hunt was given Monday evening by Mr. J. T. Nuckolls' children on their lawn at No. 2100 Fairmount Avenue to their young in-laws.

PLENTY OF FLOWERS

A Good Move is Made by the Hollywood Cemetery Directors.

The directors of Hollywood Cemetery Company, always alert to do those things that are well pleasing to the lot owners and visitors, besides supplying a nice stage to take them to all parts of the grounds, have built and strided two large green houses. Appreciating the fact that it is both difficult and inconvenient to procure growing plants and flowers in place on one lot, where lovers of the garden, the company have right at the gate a nice stock of plants and flowers, which they will sell to lot owners at reasonable prices. It is a pleasure to walk through their green houses and see the stock of growing flowers and plants the florist, Mrs. John Toles, has to show you.

The beautiful appearance of the lots and grounds at present is noticeable.

Property Transfers.

Richmond: Julia C. and Samuel H. Cottrell to Thomas Boone Floyd, 12-1/2 lot on east side Beech Street, No. 1 South, $425.

J. T. Montgomery and wife to G. B. Phillips, 10-1/2 lot on north side Birch Street, 132 feet east of Twenty-sixth, $500.

Henrico: George P. Hay, special commissioner, to Mrs. Catherine O'Neill, house and lot No. 152 Cedar Street, $230.

W. A. Ricks, trustee for C. E. Belvin and L. T. Christian, to L. T. Christian, 15-1/2 acres on west side Brook Turnpike, three quarters of a mile from Richmond, $5,000.

Richmond Union Stock Yards Company, to Virginia Packing Company, 6-1/2 lot on east side Hermitage Road, $10.

E. B. Read and wife to Marion T. Read, lots 25, 26, 27 and 28, block P, section 1, Highland Springs, $200.

Alexander J. Slater and wife and Geo. P. Haw and wife to John Morrison, 72-1/2 acres at New Bridge Church on Nine Mile Road, $3,000.

P. Stuttering and wife to Stuttering-Carroll-Davis Company, 131 feet on east side Lombardy Street, 110 feet south of Moore Street, 131 feet on west side Rowe Street, 110 feet south of Moore Street, 224 feet on south side Moore Street, southeast corner Lombardy Street, 155 feet on south side Moore Street, southeast corner Rowe Street, 131 feet on east side Rowe Street, 110 feet south of Moore Street, $1,000.

S. P. Wardill, clerk to Tax Title Company of Richmond, 25 feet on Windsor Street, southwest corner Washington, in name of George W. Martin, for taxes, $45.24.

Same to same, 2-7/8 acres, about three miles east of Richmond, in name of Henry Roane, for taxes.

Outsider Sends Aid.

One of the prettiest bounties to be seen at the Confederate Bazaar is Miss Simpson's, which is a beautiful treasure for the Richmond Patterson-Walker. Mr. C. M. Liphart, proprietor, manufacturers of various patterns, etc., Nos. 307, 305, 311 and 313 North Eighteenth Street, Mr. Liphart is not a Southern man, so it is understood, but has so identified himself with the people here that he readily agreed to do this work free of charge.

CONFERENCE OF YOUNG PEOPLE

Dr. A. L. Phillips, of This City,

Will Have Charge of a Part of the Work.

The annual conference of the Young People's Missionary Movement, an inter-denominational organization of wide scope, has been announced for July 23-24 at the University of Virginia.

Several Richmond people will probably be in attendance. Dr. R. J. Williamson, of the Baptist Foreign Mission Board, has been invited to speak, but will hardly be able to present. Dr. A. L. Phillips, of the Presbyterian Publication Society, will occupy a prominent place at the conference. He will be one of the speakers, and will have charge of a class for the study of home missions.

The Young People's Movement comes to assist denominational agencies in the development of a deeper religious life among young people. It proposes in all ways to serve the denominational boards, whose representatives constitute its executive committee. Dr. Phillips is a member of this committee.

LOCAL BILLS ARE PASSED

Little Business Outside of the Campbell Case.

THE VISITORS ARE NAMED

Governor Sends Three Appointments to the Senate—Bill Offered to Vest
Control of Miller School in New Circuit Court.

Beyond the action in the Campbell case, the Senate did but little business yesterday. Some local bills were considered, and Governor Montague communicated the announcement of the following appointments as members of the Board of Visitors of the Virginia Military Institute: Messrs. Phil. F. Brown, Rostout; Thomas W. Shelton, Norfolk; Dr. J. N. Upshur, Richmond.

The House met at noon and held a brief session, only a few interesting matters having been disposed of.

Mr. Gardner, of Henrico, offered two companion bills, amending the divorce laws so as to prohibit the publication of the names of attorneys in divorce cases and to make a conspiracy by a wife or any person to cause a husband to commit adultery a felony.

Mr. Duke presented a bill to provide for the government of the Miller Manual Labor School, present to the power of the hands of the Circuit Court of Albemarle after February 1, 1901. The House passed several bills, but none of them were of more than local importance.

The Senate.
There were twenty-nine Senators in their seats when Lieutenant-Governor Willard called the body to order.

The opening prayer was offered by Rev. Carey E. Morgan, of the Seventh-Street Christian Church.

Mr. Ople, of Augusta, introduced a bill proposing additional interrogatories to be propounded by commissioners of the revenue. The measure is designed to secure the listing of property held in trust, in the process of administration, receivership or otherwise.

Before proceeding to the consideration of the special order, the Senate took advantage of the large number of Senators present to take up and pass several bills requiring twenty-one votes. The vote on one of these bills showed the presence of thirty-two Senators.

The Senate immediately proceeded to the consideration of the calendar, taking up and passing these three bills:

To provide a charter for the town of Warrenton.

To amend the charter of the town of South Boston.

To amend the charter of the city of Danville.

These bills, having passed both Houses, now go to the Governor for his approval.

Almost the entire time of the session was devoted to the consideration of the property in the Campbell case, reported elsewhere.

A message from the Governor by his secretary was received and read, transmitting the bill of Phil. F. Brown, of Norfolk, and Dr. John N. Upshur, of this city, to members of the Board of Visitors of the Virginia Military Institute. No action was taken upon the nominations.

The House.

The House was called to order at noon by Speaker Ryan, and prayer was offered by Rev. W. T. Derieux, of the Baptist Church. The House agreed to Senate joint resolution to print 2,000 copies of the general revenue bill, with an amendment, requiring the number 1,000.

The following bills were offered and referred:

By Mr. Gardner: To make a conspiracy by a wife or any person to cause a husband to commit adultery a felony, and to prescribe a penalty therefor, and placing wife on same ground with husband under the present law.

By same: To prohibit the publication of names of attorneys in connection with divorce cases.

By Mr. Cunningham: To allow the town of Hampton to borrow $25,000.

By Mr. Duke: To provide for the government of the Miller Manual Labor School by vesting the power in the Circuit Court of Albemarle after February 1, 1901.

By Mr. Stearns: To provide for the issuance of $30,000 bonds by the city of Newport News for the payment of damages to property in the construction of the 28th Street bridge.

HOUSE BILLS PASSED.
To amend and re-enact an act approved March 1, 1894, so as to validate the acknowledgments taken to, and the recordation of any deed or other writing executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed of; and to allow hereafter any notary public or other officer duly authorized to take acknowledgments, to take acknowledgments to deeds or other writings executed by a company, or for the benefit of a company, which the company public or other officer, duly authorized to take acknowledgments, was a stockholder, an officer, or both, in such company at the time of taking the acknowledgment, but not otherwise interested in the property conveyed or disposed